	Steve	My name's Steve Bush and I'm at the Castle Market. It's 22 March 2013 and I'm here to do an interview. Can you tell me your name and where and when you were born please?
	Barry	Yes, My name's Barry Nevin. I was born in Rotherham in October 1951.
	Steve	Okay. The first thing I'd like to ask you is what are your earliest memories of this Castle Market
	Barry	Well it will probably have been about 1967 cos I was at school in Sheffield at De La Salle from 1967 to 1969 so it will be around 1967 I became in any way familiar with the market.
00:46	Steve	Okay, and what are your earliest memories of coming here?
	Barry	A number really, it probably revolved round record shops because I used to go looking at second-hand records so it might have involved that. I don't know if I ever had a meal here while I was at school in Sheffield, I can't remember. I must have walked round the market at sometime, I should imagine, during those two years. But if I did come into the market it was probably just to look at the music stalls for second-hand records probably. [Shouts to someone "John"] Sorry about that.

01:25	Steve	That's alright. When you come to the market now what kind of things do you come to do.
	Barry	Come for a meal usually and I quite often visit the card shop for various cards, , Birthday cards or Christmas cards, Easter cards and other cards. Like today, I've been, a friend of mine's son's getting engaged and he's having a party tonight so I'll have a look for an engagement card for him. But usually its to have a meal really occasionally I'll buy vegetables and really that's about it unless there's something specific I'm looking for.
01:58	Steve	Okay, and the last question is, when the market moves are you likely to visit it down there?
	Barry	Oh, I will, I think so yeh, I'll probably see it just to see what its like. I go down to the Moor occasionally, anyway.
	Steve	Okay, thanks very much Barry.
